This handwriting practice sheet features three rows of dotted lines on a light grey background. Each row contains several cursive letters with numbered arrows indicating the correct stroke order for writing. The letters are: p, q, r, s, t in the first row; u, v, w, x in the second row; and y, z in the third row. A large, faint grey letter 'T' is centered vertically across the first two rows. A grey circle is positioned in the third row, to the right of the 'T'.
